June 2023

Instead of telling you what to believe, we thought you might have a few ideas of your own

JUNE'S THEME: DELIGHT

June 4: TED Talk - Magic Is Creating Delight for Other People. Robert Strong has been voted San Francisco's "Best Magician" three times. He has performed in over 40 countries, in all 50 states, on every major TV network, and twice at the White House. Our discussion of "Delight", our theme of the month, will be facilitated by Brian Warren.

June 11: Is There Delight in Schadenfreude? Even if you don't know what schadenfreude means, chances are you've experienced it at least once in your life. Maybe when your annoying co-worker fell out of his chair. Maybe when your know-it-all classmate got a bad mark on a test. Maybe when your loud neighbours got their power cut off. If you've ever felt delight and/or joy when something bad happened to someone else, you've experienced schadenfreude.

It's an uncanny emotion that is difficult to assimilate. It's kind of a warm-cold experience that is associated with a sense of guilt. It can make you feel odd to experience pleasure when hearing about bad things happening to someone else.

Knowing yourself is key to understanding the true meaning of schadenfreude. Join us on Sunday, June 11th and we'll explore some of the examples that might have caused you schadenfreude.

Speaker: Kay Potetz. Pianist: Bob Perry. Greeter: Linda Rich.

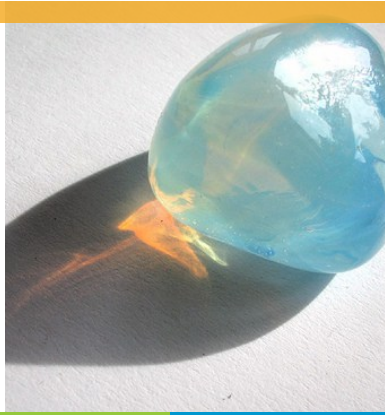

Also, remember our raffle for a great prize every second Sunday. No purchase needed. Attending the service will automatically enter you in the drawing.

June 18: Transformed by Delight. Father's Day, Evolving: Over the past 50 years, in the wake of the women's movement and LGBTQIA+ rights, a full spectrum of emotion is opening to men, to fathers, to all of us. No longer confined to anger, fatherhood may be transformed by delight. No longer confined to fear, shame, sadness, we are all called to delight. Service led by Rev. Mary June 25: Celebrating Spiritual Community. Join us for an end-of-year potluck brunch, celebration of bridging for Grace (to high school) and Amy (to middle school), followed by the Annual Meeting.

For more information about the Annual Meeting, please see page 4.

Reminder: Please turn in your pledges by June 4.

REV. MARY'S MUSINGS: Taking in Delight / Why Delight Matters

The congregation's theme of the month for June is Delight.

Delight? Seriously?... Yes. And, no.

When I first heard June's theme, simultaneously I responded, Yay! and... You've gotta be kidding! - with all that's going on....?

Both are true. Simultaneously.

What is delight?

(No dictionaries required.) De-light = of or from light

What are we made of? Light!

What do we live from? Light!

Who made us? Where are we going?

Yup, same old, same old. And never the same.

So why do we turn - must we turn - to delight?

The multiple crises of our times - climate, racism, homophobia, gun violence, war in Ukraine, attacks on democracy - need us to be awake, aware and engaged citizens.

To stay awake, aware and engaged, we need to be resilient.

To feel and respond to anger, fear, and grief, we need to be resilient.

We become resilient from love for life - for nature, for each other, for ourselves, for what we can create and become together.

Taking in Delight - breathing it into every cell of the body - creates neurological well-being, which helps us face and respond creatively to complex realities.

Where does delight find you?

Where do you expect to welcome delight?

Where do you look for delight?

Can you - will you - give yourself permission to see, feel, breathe it in?

I wrote this Musings from a gritty, neighborhood car repair and mini-mart, sitting in their single (swiveling) seat, in front of the cooler (filled with Coke products, bottled water, Reese's peanut butter cups), next to shelves of Pringles and Pop Tarts. First time here. Oil change. Looking up, I see hand-made banners, drawn by a young child: Congrats Daddy - I Love You - Angelina. Celebrating 20 years of Service.

I can't stop smiling, delight and gratitude spreading in all directions.

Delight is in the air. And on the walls.

In the faces and stories of the ones around us. Plants and animals.

May intentional delight and surprising delight be our shared practice - this month and beyond - so we may be of benefit to our world.

Rev. Mary

Religious Education

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS FOR JUNE

The goal of the Olmsted UU religious education program is to provide a safe, welcoming, loving environment for religious education for children and youth that is grounded in the UU principles, encourages spiritual and intellectual growth, and empowers our children to live our common ideals and develop their individual faith. Each Sunday, the children begin in the sanctuary for opening rituals then go to their class for the morning program.

June 4: Emily Williams and Sheryl Chow will be leading an exploration of the beautiful patterns in nature called "fractals". Found in flowers, trees, snowflakes and clouds, we are hard wired to respond to them and slow down. We stop worrying so much, become calmer and even experience a sense of awe and wonder!

June 11: For this month's theme, Delight, we will express -- through story and rhythms -- the many ways that music and musical instruments bring joy into our lives! Led by Mary Palmieri with Sheryl Chow. The story is "This Magical, Musical Night".

June 18: On Father's Day, after reading "Dandy" a whimsical story of the lengths a father will go to for his daughter, the children will be crafting a sweet gift to share their love for their fathers!

June 25: We will all join together for an end-of-year potluck brunch to celebrate the bridging of Grace (to high school) and Amy (to middle school), followed by the OUUC Annual Meeting.

OUUC News

ANNUAL MEETING - SUNDAY, JUNE 25, IN PERSON

Our Annual Meeting has been set for Sunday, June 25. We will come together for an end-of-year potluck brunch at 11 am to celebrate the bridging of Grace (to high school) and Amy (to middle school), followed by the meeting.

During the meeting we will receive annual reports from the Minister, the Board, the Treasurer, the Director of Religious Education, and the Office Manager.

We will also discuss and vote on:

- 2023-2024 Operating Budget based on the pledges that have been received
- 2023-2024 Board of Trustees
- 2023-2024 Nominating Committee

Per the Bylaws, a packet of information will be sent out two weeks before the meeting.

All are welcome to attend. Members of OUUC are able to vote.

HOME SCHOOL CO-OP FAIR JUNE 11

The Home School Co-op that was meeting one day a week at OUUC will be hosting a fair for the Greater Cleveland home school community. So far, they have 15 vendors who will be promoting their services for parents who home school their children.

The fair will be held on Sunday, June 11 from 1 - 5 pm outside if the weather is good. If not, they'll be using Coe Hall. This will not interfere with our regular Sunday activities and is an invaluable chance for OUUC to be more visible to young families. The fair is a secular event, so we will not have a table, but it is still an important outreach.

If you'd like to learn more about home schooling and the community, please stop by.
